

EXCLUSIVE PICTURE !!

SHE might have been born in SA, but there's no doubt Nicola Breytenbach is living the life of a star overseas. Apart from living in New York City – in the Trump building, let us add – she gets to spend her free time travelling around the world. This time we spotted her enjoying a ride on her golf cart on the exclusive Fisher Island, off the coast of Miami, where her and husband Ben Steiner own a home. Residents on the island – where stars like Oprah Winfrey, Julia Roberts, Ricky Martin, Boris Becker and Andre Agassi also have homes – are only allowed to travel by golf cart. Aaaahhh... what a life! And she sure seems to be loving it!
